Edited by Timo Koivurova, Arctic Centre, University of Lapland and Sanna Kopra, Arctic Centre, University of Lapland
In the book Chinese Policy and Presence in the Arctic, Koivurova and Kopra (eds.) offer a comprehensive account of China’s diplomatic, economic, environmental, scientific and strategic presence in the Arctic region and its influence on the future of the region.

Wilderness Protection in Polar Regions
Arctic Lessons Learnt for the Regulation and Management of Tourism in the Antarctic
Antje Neumann, University of Akureyri
Based on a study of wilderness protection in three Arctic countries, Antje Neumann identifies numerous ‘lessons learnt’ which could improve the protection of Antarctica’s wilderness, in particular with regard to the increasing and diversifying tourism in the region.

Human and Societal Security in the Circumpolar Arctic
Local and Indigenous Communities
Edited by Kamrul Hossain, Arctic Centre, Northern Institute for Environmental and Minority Law, José Miguel Roncero Martín, and Anna Petrétei, Arctic Centre, Northern Institute for Environmental and Minority Law
Human and Societal Security in the Circumpolar Arctic addresses a comprehensive understanding of security in the Arctic, with a particular focus on one of its sub-regions – the Barents region. The book presents a comparative and interdisciplinary perspective to which the Arctic is placed as referent, and special attention is paid to the viewpoint of local and indigenous communities.
