

13th Polar Law Symposium

Panel on the Future of Arctic Ocean Governance

The Legal Framework for Arctic Ocean Governance

23 November 2020 (Mon) 17:00-19:00 JST / 8:00-10:00 GMT
Zoom Meeting (registration through the PLS website required)

Speakers:

Vonintsoa RAFALY (University of Gothenburg, Sweden)

Viatcheslav GAVRILOV (Far Eastern Federal University, Russia)

Makoto SETA (Yokohama City University, Japan)

Vonintsoa RAFALY

Vonintsoa Rafaly is Postdoctoral Research Fellow at the Department of Law, University of Gothenburg (Sweden). She is interested in legal and politic aspects of International Ocean Governance and Law of the Sea. Passionate about theoretical aspects of international norms and legal instruments, her postdoctoral research is focusing on “High Seas Governance: Towards a Socialisation of the Law of the Sea”. Otherwise, she worked as an Associate Professor in European and International Environmental Law, International Law of Fisheries and Law of the Protection of the Environment

Viatcheslav GAVRILOV

Head, Department of International Public and Private Law, Director of the School of Law, Far Eastern Federal University (Vladivostok, Russia). He received his PhD in Juridical Sciences from Kazan State University in 1994 and his LL.D. in 2006. Gavrillov has authored many scientific publications on public and private international law, including five monographs and several textbooks. He was invited as a speaker and has participated in international conferences and programs in the USA, Canada, China, France, Hungary, Taiwan, Thailand, Spain, Indonesia, Luxembourg, Malaysia, Philippines, Cambodia, India and Japan. He is also a co-founder and attorney of the Board of Lawyers “Etalon” in Vladivostok.

Makoto SETA

Dr. Makoto SETA is an Associate Professor of International Law at Yokohama City University, Japan. His primary interest is the law of the sea, especially ocean governance, universal jurisdiction over maritime crimes, and maritime private standards.

Discussion-oriented seminar on the Legal Framework for Arctic Ocean Governance

Presentations

Vonintsoa Rafaly, The Law of the Sea in the Age of Building an Appropriate Governance of Polar Regions

Viatcheslav Gavrillov, Determination of extended continental shelf boundaries in the Arctic Ocean

Makoto Seta, Harmonization or Collision: The Relationship between Science and Experience in the Arctic Ocean